

Privacy Policy

1. Privacy commitment

The Zipang website is owned and operated by the Enheduanna Society. We are committed to safeguarding your privacy online and to this end have developed the following Privacy Policy to deal with issues which may concern you. Please read the Privacy Policy to understand how your personal information will be treated.

2. Personal Information

The details which you provide about yourself and any information which identifies you such as your name, address, email address, telephone number and country of residence will only be retained by us if you provide this information when using our website, such as subscribing to our mailing list. Personal Information will be held on our system and used for occasional emails with news of Zipang events and related activities.

You can ask to be removed from our mailing list at any time. To do this, either email mailing@zipang.org.uk and include the word UNSUBSCRIBE in the Subject line, or use the link which you will find at the bottom of all our emails to you.

3. Log files

Every time someone visits our website a log file is generated on our computer. The log file records the time and date of your visit, the pages that were requested, your IP (Internet Protocol) address, the referrer URL (if provided) and the browser version. We collect this information to help us to audit the geographical make-up of visitors to our website. We do not link IP addresses to anything personally identifiable, which means that you remain anonymous even though we include your IP address in our aggregate information.

4. Use and disclosure of Personal Information

If you contact us we reserve the right to keep a record of that correspondence and incorporate the information it contains into our database. We undertake never to rent, sell or share your Personal Information with any third party. However, if we are requested by the police or a regulatory or government authority investigating illegal activities to provide information concerning your activities whilst using the network we shall do so.

5. How we protect information

We take every precaution to protect your information. To this end all Personal Information stored by us is kept on a server in a secure environment. Only employees and approved contractors/developers we may appoint from time to time and who need the information to perform a specific job are granted access to personally identifiable information.

6. Correcting/Updating Personal Information

If your Personal Information changes or if you no longer wish to receive our communications, please send a request to mailing@zipang.org.uk, and we will correct, update or remove the Personal Information provided to us.

7. Users Under 18

If you are under 18, please ensure that you obtain your parent/guardian's consent before you provide Personal Information on our website.
